

ATTAWAPISKAT FIRST NATION – CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

It is in the best interest of Attawapiskat First Nation to be aware of and properly manage all conflicts of interest and appearances of a conflict of interest. This conflict of interest policy is designed to help directors, officers, employees and volunteers of the Attawapiskat First Nation identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest and to provide Attawapiskat First Nation with a procedure to appropriately manage conflicts in accordance with legal requirements and the goals of accountability and transparency in Attawapiskat First Nation operations.

1. Conflict of Interest Defined. In this policy, a person with a conflict of interest is referred to as an “interested person.” For purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create a Conflict of Interest:

 - c. A councilor, director, officer, employee or volunteer, (or a family member of the foregoing) is engaged in some capacity or has a material financial interest in a business or enterprise that competes with the Attawapiskat First Nation.

Other situations may create the appearance of a conflict, or present a duality of interests in connection with a person who has influence over the activities or finances of the Attawapiskat First Nation. All such circumstances should be disclosed to the council, board or staff, as appropriate, and a decision made as to what course of action the organization or individuals should take so that the best interests of the Attawapiskat First Nation are not compromised by the personal interests of stakeholders in the Attawapiskat First Nation.

Gifts, Gratuities and Entertainment. Accepting gifts, entertainment or other favors from individuals or entities can also result in a conflict or duality of interest when the party providing the gift/entertainment/favor does so under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the interested person in the performance of his or her duties. This does not preclude the acceptance of items of nominal or insignificant value or entertainment of nominal or insignificant value which are not related to any particular transaction or activity of the Attawapiskat First Nation
